Juvenile Detention Alternative Initiative (JDAI)
Innovations Funding (Right Path Program)
The Right Path Program is a suspension prevention/diversion strategy offered to middle and high school students in Sussex County. The goal of the program is to break the cycle of the “school to prison” pipeline by providing a programmatic alternative to school suspensions. Services include providing an assessment and identification of problematic behavior(s) as well as referrals to community service providers.

Sussex County Youth Advisory Council (SCYAC)
The SCYSC advocates for an accessible, responsive, integrated, and coordinated system of care specific to the needs of youths and families. The SCYSC is responsible for implementing the duties and responsibilities set forth in the Bring Our Children Home Act and the Juvenile Justice Commission. Special focus is given to youths with special social and emotional needs and/or juveniles involved or at risk of involvement in the Family Court.
Detention Alternatives Program
The Detention Alternatives Program provides intensive supervision, electronic monitoring (where applicable), community service and case management to court-involved youth. This program allows the youth to remain at home, in school, and in the community.

Family Promise of Sussex County recognizes and embraces the body and spirit of our volunteer community. Whether you volunteer to build your skills, help others, or to enhance tolerance across groups and sectors, the outcome is always a win-win for all. Aside from the psychological and emotional rewards, volunteerism lays the groundwork for a robust civil society, one in which collectivism and group ties continuously nurture the initiative of charity. The act of giving reaffirms relationships among community members and helps create an environment conducive to unity and utility. Bearing in mind this observation, it behooves us then as an agency and as individuals to always be reminded of the power of volunteerism and its celebrated impact. Family Promise of Sussex County has many volunteer opportunities. Please call for more information.
